In major shops or restaurants Euro currency could be used but the exchange rate is worse ~25 Kč per 1 Euro. When exchanging money in Prague, please ask for a commission and rate first - there is no commission in Exchange offices in Pardubice. Use of ATM machines is recommended.

from Prague (Praha) airport (letišť Václava Havla) to the train main station (Praha-hlavní nádraží)

- by shuttle bus: for direct connection to Prague-hlavní nádraží (train) use the bus Airport express (AE). Bus stops are situated in front of Arrival Halls of Terminals 1 and 2. Ticket can be purchased from bus driver (100 Kč, approx. 4 €, Czech currency needed). You can also buy one combined ticket to train + AE at the corresponding counter located in each terminal (see link below).

- by bus: Prague airport is also operated by common buses of Prague transport company, but it takes longer time (40 min.). For connection from airport to Prague-hlavní nádraží (train) you can use combination of bus and subway (for example bus 119 and subway A, C). Tickets can be obtained at the counter of Prague transport company situated in each terminal or at the vending machines located at bus stops.

for appropriate connection use this link: <http://jizdnirady.idnes.cz/praha/spojeni/>

- by taxi: fares from the Prague Airport Terminals to the main railway station (Praha hlavní nádraží) should be between 550-650 Kč, approx. 20-25 €, Czech currency is needed, surcharge when paid with Euro, US dollars or credit cards. We strongly recommend to ask the driver for the price before embarkment to let him know you know the common prices.

Recommendation: Due to the higher prices, you are kindly requested to avoid the service of exchange offices, which are located in airport terminals (ATM recommended).
